Letter from the President of ISA RC52

Dear members and friends of ISA Research Committee 52 'Sociology of Professional Groups',

I hope you have had a good 2024. As the new year approaches, we are hard at work preparing the programme for the ISA Forum in Rabat Morocco. The V ISA Forum of Sociology will be held, entirely in-person, in Rabat Morocco, July 6-11 2025, at the campus of Mohammed V University. The theme is "Knowing Justice in the Anthropocene".

We received many strong paper proposals, and our session organizers have reviewed them to organize sessions for the July conference. Later in the newsletter we will provide a list of the sessions that are affiliated with our RC. At time of writing, there are 124 papers proposed across 21 sessions organized by RC52 alone and in collaboration with RC15, RC17, RC 23, and RC30. The ISA has advised us that the number of papers is likely to drop after the registration deadline. We are also participating in an integrative session organized by RC15, along with RC 30: 'Intersecting Crises: Anthropocene, Capitalocene, and the Future of Care and Service Sector Work through a Public Sociology Lens'. There are some additional special sessions planned as well.

The programme schedule will be finalized in January 2025. The registration grants deadline is also in January 2025. The registration deadline for presenters is in March 2025.

If you are planning on attending the Forum and are willing to chair a session, please let me know as soon as possible at tladams@uwo.ca.

We will have other initiatives coming in 2025, including planning for the 2026 online conference that the ISA has announced. We will have more on that later.

Wishing you all the best for the rest of 2024 and a happy new year.

Best wishes,
Tracey

Cher.e.s membres et ami.e.s du comité de recherche 52 de l'AIS "Sociologie des groupes professionnels", J'espère que vous avez passé une bonne année 2024. A l'approche de la nouvelle année, nous sommes occupés à préparer le programme du Forum ISA de Rabat au Maroc. Le Vème Forum ISA de Sociologie se tiendra, entièrement en personne, à Rabat au Maroc, du 6 au 11 juillet 2025, sur le campus de l'Université Mohammed V. Le thème est « Knowing Justice in the Anthropocene » (Connaître la justice dans l'anthropocène).

Nous avons reçu de nombreuses propositions d'articles de qualité, et nos organisateurs de sessions les ont examinées afin d'organiser des sessions pour la conférence de juillet. Plus loin dans cette lettre d'information, nous fournirons une liste des sessions planifiées par notre CR. Au moment où nous écrivons ces lignes, 124 articles sont proposés pour 21 sessions organisées par le CR52 seul et en collaboration avec les CR15, CR17, CR 23 et CR30. L'ISA nous a informés que le nombre de communications diminuera après la date limite d'inscription. Nous participons également à une session intégrative organisée par le RC15, en collaboration avec le RC 30 : Intersecting Crises: Anthropocene, Capitalocene, and the Future of Care and Service Sector Work through a Public Sociology Lens. D'autres sessions spéciales sont également prévues.

Le programme sera finalisé en janvier 2025. La date limite d'inscription est également fixée à janvier 2025. La date limite d'inscription pour les présentateurs est fixée à mars 2025.

Latest news from the Journal of Professions & Organization

Dear ISA RC52 friends,

2024 has been another excellent year for JPO. I'll begin with what is – in my opinion – the best news, and that is that Ronit Dinovitzer has agreed to assume the role of JPO's Editor-in-Chief starting 1-1-25. Many of you know Ronit as a long-time member of the JPO family—a prize-winning author, and having served as a reviewer, editorial board member, Associate editor, and Editor. Ronit and I have been working on the transition for the last few months, and I am certain that JPO will be in excellent hands.

JPO's operations for 2024 have been very good, with submissions well above average (92 for the first 11 months), and averaging 51 days for paper sent to review. The desk reject rate is higher than usual (67%). Our pipeline is very healthy as well (see <https://academic.oup.com/jpo/advance-articles>).

December's CiteScore Tracker was steady at 3.2, which is OK but could be much better. Please cite relevant JPO papers as much as possible, and encourage colleagues to do the same. To this end, please see the latest JPO issues published at <https://academic.oup.com/jpo/issue>

Finally, JPO has published just a few special issues over these eventful 11 years, but this year we were very happy to see the fruits of the excellent work by Guest Editors Kirstie McAllum, Joshua Barbour, Stephanie Fox and Frederik Matte. They assembled an excellent collection under the title "Opening up the meanings of 'the professional,' professional organizations, and professionalism in communication studies" and I have added the list of SI papers below.

Wishing you all a happy holiday season, and looking forward to being back in touch during 2025.

David M. Brock

Professions and Professionalism (P&P) is an open-access, net-based, peer-reviewed journal. The Journal invites research-based empirical, theoretical or synoptic articles focusing on traditional professions as well as other knowledge-based occupational groups. The journal is interdisciplinary, with its centre of gravity in the social sciences and humanities. While articles may focus on one profession in a specific social context, authors are encouraged to point out the wider relevance of their contributions to the study of professions and professionalism. The editorial team would specifically encourage Members of the RC52 to use the journal as a channel of scholarly publication and debate.
